The Manuscript Lectures

Study Day in Canterbury organised by the Calligraphy and Lettering Arts Society and A2Z

SATURDAY OCTOBER 24TH, 10.00AM-3.30PM

The Calligraphy and Lettering Arts Society (CLAS) and A2Z (Palaeography Special Interest Group) are delighted that the Manuscript Pen Company has kindly sponsored CLAS again for this Study Day which focuses on Canterbury and its Cathedral.

Yet again CLAS has been able to secure the services of excellent lecturers who really know their stuff. Professor Peter Draper is a recognised expert on the building of Canterbury Cathedral and has written extensively on this and other Gothic buildings, and is a superb lecturer. Professor Michelle Brown will need no introduction to most CLAS members, who know how erudite she is on manuscripts in general, and Anglo-Saxon manuscripts in particular. She is also able to convey her extensive knowledge in the most user-friendly way! This is a day not to be missed!
