CALLIGRAPHY & LETTERING ARTS SOCIETY

A charity registered with the Charity Commission no.1046526

About CLAS

The Calligraphy & Lettering Arts Society (CLAS) is one of the largest and most supportive western calligraphy and lettering societies in the world. It is based in the United Kingdom and has an extensive membership in Europe as well as many countries overseas.

As a charity registered with the Charity Commission CLAS exists to promote the study, practice and teaching of western calligraphy and lettering in all its forms. It also encourages awareness and appreciation among the wider public by means of exhibitions and the regular publication of the Edge.

Whether you're just starting out in the wonderful craft of calligraphy, have more experience or are at the top of the profession, there is something in CLAS for you.

General Data Protection Regulation

With the introduction of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) on 25th May 2018 CLAS wants to ensure all members are aware of their rights.

CLAS processes and retains members' data for administration and mailing purposes only. Data retained is that provided in the membership application, i.e. contact details, level of skill where provided. This data will be kept in our database for the duration of an individual's membership and will be used in accordance with the contract fulfilment criteria of the GDPR act. As and when the membership expires all data is automatically deleted from our records.

If at any time a member wishes for their data to be erased, they must do so in writing, stating which data they wish to be erased. Please note that erasure of contact details will result in the inability of CLAS to send the Edge magazine, CLAS News and any other Society notification, including membership renewal.

CLAS will always ask for explicit individual permission to use a member's data (usually only name, email address and/or website) for direct promotion purposes (for example to publicise an upcoming or past exhibition). A member can object to their data being used in any way they do not wish for it to be used.

For full details of our Data Protection Policy see our website www.clas.co.uk/membership.
